

Where Western Heritage Begins!

The Idaho Junior Rodeo Association, a nonprofit organization, began in 1982 and is open to youth from the State of Idaho, ages 0-17. The IJRA is an association teaching future cowboys and cowgirls to work hard, accomplish goals to become Champions and become ethical, responsible members of their communities.

Five to eight rodeos are held throughout the summer season. Contestants earn points towards year-end awards. At the end of the season, buckles are awarded to the top five cowboys and cowgirls in each event in the 0-6 and 7-9 age groups, the top four cowboys and cowgirls in each event in the 10-13 and 14-17 age groups. All-Around Champion saddles are awarded in each age group except the 0-6.
